It was a moment of terror. A clergyman of the city proposed prayer, and found many ready to join him in the extremity. The ladies acreamed, men wrang their hands, and the etontest turned pale at the dismal prospect. The boat struck the racks at the kead of the falls, nearly opposite Smith's mill, and the ice broke. Intense excitement on the wharf. Many saw their friends, and some of their families in this familient peril. Large offers were made for their rescue, but not accepted. Some ludicrous stories were, perhaps, invented. One man, it is said, offered fifty do'll-rs for the rescue of his wife; seeing his offer likely to be taken up, he fell to tea. A life-boat from man, it is said, offered fifty dothers for the rescue of a deep blue evening.

Since the unfortunate gil was first brought to the city she has written ever at times to her friends, at ting that she was ill, but not ment oning u der what circumstances. A day or two since one of her brother arrived, and yesterday laid the matter before the Mayor, who immediately dispatched an officer to the house in West. Broadway, to ascertzin if the girl was eufficiently recovered to appear before him, and if so, to bring her. She came with the officer and made a lengthy affidavit, of which the foregoing is the substance. A warrent was issued for the arrest of the two physicians, and one of them was captured. The affair is being shoroughly investigated by the Mayor.—N. Y. Eur., 26th interface of the two physicians, and one of them was captured. The affair is being shoroughly investigated by the Mayor.—N. The Seard Concentrator is an extraordinary, power fit, use with involted small instrument, for the sure of extreme cases of deafness, entirely different in make or construct on from all others, surpassing overything that has been or probably over can be produced. They are not nodeted to the cavity of the car, and may rest within, without projecting, and being of the same color as the skin, are not perceptible. The powers of this velouable invention are no great as to restore defective hearing of long standing to its perfect and natural state, and to enable deaf persons to join in general conversatior, to hear most distinctly at a pince of worship, at he bar, or any public assembly; the nn-pleasant sensation of ringing noises in the ear is entirely removed, and the concentration affords to Individuals afflicted with this drendful malady all the assistance that can possibly be desired.

It gives me pleasure to bear testimony to the value of Mr. S. domone' Glasses.
